March Events

March saw the start of our monthly training sessions, which was a success even in the snow and rain!

This training was hosted by our very own lovely committee couple Alison and Robert @ Sweethiloch Farm in Lossie where we attendance of both members and non members.

Many positive comments from the instruction given by Sara Stevens.

Important Announcement

We will be introducing a loyalty scheme where attendants will be issued with a loyalty card and at each training event it will get stamped upon completion of your lesson.

Once 3 training sessions have been stamped you will receive a free competition membership!

Next Events

On the 11th of April we are holding our second training session. This will again be held at Sweethiloch and will be taught by Corinne Hemingway a former 3* eventer and BHSII Accredited Coach. This training will be geared towards the individual riders requirements be it traditional flatwork training or help with how to get the best out of your horse/pony when showing in a ridden show. The riders preference to lesson type can be advised on the day of the training

Back by popular demand we will be holding our Show Jumping and Ride and test Dressage followed by 15 minutes coaching helping you work towards getting those much sought after higher marks. This competition will be held on Saturday the 13th Of April at Keith Show Ground.

BREAKING NEWS

We are holding a joint Working Hunter Competition with Deveron Pony Club on Saturday 20th April. This will cater to all levels of rider starting from as low as X-poles. This will be held at Keith Show Ground and will have a food van in attendance, photographer and classes will be sponsored.

You can find additional information and entry forms for all of these events and more on our website www.strathislariding.co.uk and on our Facebook Page

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

A quick reminder that if you are attending any training or competitions through us we are following BRC rules.

The horse or pony must have been vaccinated against equine influenza by a veterinary surgeon who is not the owner of the animal, in accordance with the following rules:

The horse or pony must have received a primary injection followed by:

- a second primary injection which is given not less than 21 days and not more than 92 days after the first
- a first booster injection which is given not less than 150 days and not more than 215 days after the second primary injection
- further annual booster injections at intervals of not more than a year apart. If the current vaccination programme started AFTER 1 January 2014:
  - the first two primary injections must be correct i.e. the second given between 21 and 92 days after the first
  - the first booster must be given between 150 and 215 days after the second primary injection
  - all annual boosters must be correct

No injection should have been given on any of the 6 days before a competition or training.
